

My name is

Vivian Fermoselle

Let me tell you something about me

I grew up in New Jersey, studied Music Education, attended Rutgers University. Married to Eduardo, since 1979 and we have two children, Laura and Daniel.

I have been working in the Archdiocese of Miami as a Music Teacher since 1983. In 1987, I had the privilege of singing in the Papal Mass Choir. Retired in 2005, came to St. Michael the Archangel as the permanent substitute in 2006, and became the Music Teacher in 2010.

I am a Eucharistic Minister and an Emmaus member.
