Let me tell you something about me

My name is José "Pepe" Hernandez; I am married and have three daughters, all of which graduated from St. Michael.

I am a Eucharistic Minister at St. Michael Church and part of the Emmaus group.

I started working part-time at St. Michael in 1995 as a softball coach and since then have been coaching a number of sports; such as basketball, football, cross-country and baseball. In 2006, I started working full time as the Athletic Director and Assistant P.E. coach. In addition, I serve as the Camp Director for the annual summer camp.
